

Summer time and the feeling is easy...doesn't it seem like the warmer weather always has a way of making the days more enjoyable? Is it the leaves on the trees, the shrubs in full bloom or the extra sunshine? Maybe it's the ability to get outside more, wear less layers, maybe return to, or begin new outdoor activities that seemed unbearable in the colder months.

Just look around the Hollander House, the landscaping is just a marvel. Beautiful flowers and plants bursting with life and color. Have you checked out the community garden boxes? Those too are alive with growth. The patio furniture was washed and ready to use, go out and enjoy your lunch or dinner with friends! New England summers are beautiful, yet swift, so don't blink or you'll miss it!

Another great thing about summer, more daylight! This allows you to tackle those longer day projects. A great summer project is to de-clutter! Get rid of old/broken items, clothes that don't fit or that don't bring you joy. Purge your pantry and storage spaces to keep the nasty bugs away, and toss expired foods and "stuff" into a bag and down the garbage chute. Have fun with it!

Happy
Summer Hollander House. I hope you enjoy the season as much as I do!

Garbage & Recycling AGAIN, YES!

This is still a problem! Please help us get this under control. You are responsible for your Aides and your Guests. No trash or trash bags are to go into the blue bins. The blue bins are for rinsed items that will be recycled, for example, glass, plastics, clean papers, cardboard material etc. NO dirty diapers, bags of trash or leftover food remains should ever go in the blue bins or on the floor of the Trash Rooms. Bags of garbage go down the chute.

Cooktop Surfaces

The only time something should be on your stovetop is when you are cooking and using a cooking pot or skillet. DO NOT put, store, save or display anything on your stovetop. It can start a fire and recently did.

Painting

As you may have noticed, we are completing the hallway painting project and all of the upper corridors will be painted we hope by the end of June. The paint crew started the last week in May on the second floor. Dates cannot be exact so please be careful if you exit your door and see drop cloths on the carpet and painters at the wall. Please walk carefully. Thank you for being careful and considerate.
